Crimination and recrimination will now be the order of the day for the next 25 years. At the end of which time up one will have gained anything except, perhaps, his Satanic majesty.

It is to be hoped that the citizens will generally whitewash their out-build-ings and fences, and make Belle Point look as bright and clean as possible. The marshal's attention is called to lots

The long delayed—long dreaded law suit is upon us. Baptist plaintiff—Baptist defendant—Baptist trustee—Baptist attorney—all Christians. Oh, how lovely it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.

What has becomes all.

What has become of the school-house proposition? Hope it has not fizzled out. It behaves the citizens of this place, that is if they desire the place to prosper, to at once get to work and prosper, to at once get to work and erect a school-house and chapel.

Besthering from severe condentracted from being out late one night last week dressed in woman's clothes, awaiting the arrival of some of his gentlemen friends. Campbell thought he would have some fun but he missed it.

Mr. Hiram Reardin, of this place.

The Maryland House of Delegates,

Now we don't know this bloat nor do we care to. We are glad he has given us an advertisement. He is no doubt jealous of our prosperous place. Our business men generally are very accommodating and polite, and our town officials are all gentlemen, and nothing he may say will keep us from the even tenor of our way. We hope he may be surprised one day by the advent of some distinguished personage—such as a General, Colonel, or Major. Take another drink, Red Eye.

There are five hundred magisterial districts in Kentucky where the sale of liquor is prohibited.

W. C. T. U. meets every Wednesday at 3 o'clock p. m., in the Sunday-school room of the Christian Church.

The W. C. T. U. meets every Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, at the Christian Church. The Young Womans Union at half past four o'clock at the same place, on the same afternoon.

Our friends in West Virginia are making a determined effort to suppress the sale of whisky, but with varying results. At every election some point is taken from the enemy, and his pow-er curtailed to that extent.

Dr. B. W. Richardson, the eminent scientist, says "the temperance cause will never win its way until all the women in the kingdoms and through-out the civilized world are embarked in the enterprise of temperance."

Lost, strayed or stolen! One Bud Moore, who got his hand hurt in a corn sheller about two weeks since, has come up missing in the last few days. The finder will be handsomely rewarded if they will keep his whereabouts a secret.

NIP AND TUCK.

Polsgrove's last Saturday night and had a very pleasant time, but why none of them would sing last Sunday evening is certainly surprising. We know that there are as good singers in that class as can be found anywhere, and it was the truly mortifying to their leader after all the trouble he has taken and the praise he has bestowed on the class, that they should fail him at such a time and liquors and I've tried cold water, and I must say that cold water takes the cake every time. I used to be what you might call a hard drinker, but have turned over a new leaf. The first as can be found anywhere, and it was the cold over a new leaf. The first thing I do in the morning is to take a good big drink at the end of the route. I don't know how to explain it, but it keeps me as warm as a toast all day. Some of the men who prefer whisty are the men who prefer whisty are the men who prefer whisty are the men who complain most of the cold every time.
